DAVIS THEATRE.

nous Players Feature Today. For the last half of this week another of the Famous Players Class A attractions has been booked with Cyril Scott, the eminent dramatic actor, who was such a success in the Prince Chap, The Lottery Man, who will be be seen here in "The Day of Days," an extravaganm of Metropolitan adventure full of thrilling situations with New York at night as a background. Cyril Scott plays the part of Percival, a young bookkeeper who has led an uneventful life until fate chooses him as the central figure in one of the strangest plots ever woven about the Metropolis. Percival finds himself in the midst of a series of thrilling eposodes that takes him from the lowly earth to the highest peaks of remance. There is a fascination to this feature that keeps you interested from the start and holds you throughout the entire four parts of the production. The Mutual Movies on this bill are The Embassador's Envoy, or the last half of this week anthroughout the entire four parts of the production. The Mutual Movies on this bill are The Embassador's Envoy, a powerful diplomatic drama by the Domine company in two reels. Our Mutual Giri is here also and the mystery is nearly solved regarding her strange disappearance. The Keystone comedy today, is The Fatal Mallet and in it is seen the Big Three Mack Sennit, Mabel Morman and Charlie Chaplin, the greatest laugh producers ever seen on any screen. Messrs. Boyle and Craig have a new concert programme. Mr. Boyle will sing a novelty song, entitled "Fide is a Hot Dog Now," Mr. Craig will sing the bautity song, entitled "Fide is a Hot Dog Now," Mr. Craig will sing the bauti-ful Scotch tenor solo, Mary, and their duet is Life's Dream is O'er, a num-ber which gives both of these clever artists a chance to display their vo-cal talents to advantage. Notwith-standing the extremely hot weather the crowds are still coming to the Da-vis as it is always much cooler here than it is on the street. Come and keep cool.

On Friday afternoon and evening the management of the Davis will give away to the patrons attending the performance a beautiful souvenir photo of Mary Pickford, the greatest film actress in the world who will be seen here next week in her greatest success, "Tess of the Storm Country."

COLONIAL THEATRE.

Against Hervy Odds," Immense Two Reel Mexican Drama, American

This powerful drama of life in Mexico tells a story that is at oboe thrilling and absorbing, dealing with a certain Bob Melville who having located gold leaves for the East to raise funds to work it. A faithful Mexican has previously saved his life from stage robbers, and having been captured by the enraged bandits, is tied to a tree and about to be killed. He is saved by a wealthy landowner who is passing. The landowner engages the Mexican as a gardener. Melville returns and finds the Mexican favored in the eyes of the wealthy man's daughter, and finds the Mexican favored in the eyes of the wealthy man's daughter, Melvillo proposes, but the girl opposes. The gardener leaves to perfect his education so that he may be worthy of the girl, and later works out a problem in hardening steel, the secret of which he sells and becomes a wealthy man. The girl accepts him and all ends happily except for Melville. "A Model Young Many," Vitagraph: "Red Riding Hood of the Hills," Essanay; and "The Kiss," a wonderful Vitagraph complete the bill.

Three New Vaudeville Acts and Fine Photo Plays at the Auditorium To-

Despite the various counter attrac-tions and the warm weather, the Au-ditorium has played to well filled ok a fact that demonstrates the sem which this popular house has esteem which this popular house has with local theatre goers. The bill the first half of the week was top notch in quality and the programme for today is equally as good.

Heading today's programme is the comedy gymnastic trapeze and horisontal bar specialty presented by the Vanersons, a team of circus performens who have an act that is out of the ordinary. The tady of the act is an accomplished areal trapeze artist, and the funity closes who are accomplished. The tady of the act is an hed areal trapeze artist, and accomplished areal trapeze artist, and the funny clown who assists her is an adept performer on the horizontal bars, thus making two gymnastic acts in one. Mozarto, the Monarch of Melody, has a novel offering that is unique in every respect, and the only one of the kind on the read. His one of its kind on the road. His specialty consists of playing various musical instrument but he plays two at a time. Mozarto plays duets all by himself, and such combinations as 'cello and flute, two claimets, and many others denote him as an act out of the usual rise. wual run.

Wilson and Waring have a comedy singing and talking act without which no show is complete. Their songs are new, and their stories are fresh, and what is more, they know how to put them over. They will please.

"The photo plays today are varied and well chosen. The feature "In a Persian Garden," is a delightful two reel Eclair society drama, with an all star cast. The Imp star King Baggot, will be seen in "Notoriety," a play that gives this popular actor a chance to put over a wonderful character study. For those who have never seen behind the scenes in a motion picture studio, "The Career of Waterlee Peterson," a comedy dealing with a caniera man, will be a noverty. "Fashionable Dances" is the last film and this is a practical lesson in the latest steps. on and Waring have a comedy

Biolas says: "My freckles are worse than ever this year, made doubly conspicuous by a pailid complexion. Is there any cure?" Ask your druggist for an ounce of mereolized wax, apply nightly like cold cream, removing in the morning with warm water. As the wax gradually, harmlessly absorbs the affected cuticie, not only will the freckles vanish, but the new and younger skin which appears will have a healthy color.—Woman's Realm.

POETRY

TO AN OLD GARD

Hidden away with jealous care
Behind your ancient walks,
Your cool mirage still hover o'er
The city's crowds, the traffic's roar,
When from a flower-shop's open doo
The white stock softly calls,
—Ethel H. Wolff, in New York Times

COSMIC RHYTHM.

Akin to all the starry worlds am I
That whirl in boundless space;
And I am the heart of the violet
That blooms in a biet place.
With the stars I muse, and move, and

With the storms I sweep a brother I am part of the Infinite whole.

In every dawn I am born and In every dawn I rise to mine;
In the season's gold or the season's Forever I smile and entwine.
In the baby's laugh, in the mother's tear,
I, a brother soul to soul,
Have always lives and always shall,
A part of the infinite whole.

—Harriette Irmaguard Lockwood, in July Nautilia.

HUMOR OF THE DAY

Hicks—You can never tell about a woman. Wicks—You shouldn't, any-now.—Boston Transcript. Willie—Pa, what is a henpecked husband? Pa—A man whose nerve in in his wife's name, my son.—Cincin-

Mr. B—This window open behind me makes a fearful draft. My teeth are chartering! Mrs. B—Well, you know you can take them out.—London Opinion. nati Enquirer.

"Going to be a dull season at the beach—no bathing." "Why?" "Oh, the girls will find their bathing dresses too dreadfully oppressive after this winter's gowns."—Judge.

Hemmandhaw—Is there any way to make the women dress decently? Mrs. Hemmandhaw—Certainly there is, "Well, what is it" "Kill off the men."—Youngstown Telegram. "This food problem is something awful!" exclaimed the querulous man, "Still harping on the high cost of livin?" "No. My wife has decided to reduce her weight. I wouldn't care what food cost if she would only consent to buy it."—Washington Star.

"Why is it," the creditor asked, "that you fail
The $10 bill which you owe me to mail?"
Said the debtor: "I doubt if I can, anyhow; There's a card, 'Post No Bills,' in the postoffice now."

-Town Topics. "The rich young men are getting tired of automobiles." "Yes, they seem to be." "They want airships now." "Well, thank goodness, when they are seized with the speed mania up in the boundless blue they won't run over anything more important than a buzzard or a crow."—Florida Times-

"Can you make me a sheet-iron mandolin?" "I might, but it wouldn't have much tone. What do you want of a sheet-iron mandolin, anyway?"
"I'm trying to serenade a girl and they have a buildog. I've busted several instruments on him. Next time I smash him I want to smash him good."

Soft, Fluffy Hair Aids Beauty and Personality

Giris and women of all ages want to be charming, beautiful and attractive—it's their birthright—but stringy, thin and lifeless hair destroys haif the beauty of a pretty face.

If your hair is not beautiful, is falling out, streaky, full of dandruff, too dry, or if the scalp itches and burns, use Parisian Sage. Rub it well into the scalp. It will go right to the hair roots, nourish them, and stimulate the hair to grow strong and luxuriant. Parisian Sage removes dandruff with one application and cleanses the hair of dirt, dust and excessive oil. It will cool and invigorate the scalp and make the hair doubly beautiful.

Parisian Sage is a scientifically made preparation that gives the hair just what is needed to make it soft, fust, thick and gloriously radiant it is delicately perfumed; is inexpensive and can be had at all drug and toilet counters or from Lee & Osgood Ce.
